BULLDOG BITES

- National Academy Foundation visited last week and is considering NDHS for a “distinguished” rating
- Dallas ISD Superintendent Michael Hinojosa and several central administration personnel paid a visit to North Dallas this month. They were escorted by the student ambassadors and received rave reviews for their professionalism and poise. NDBSL provides the jackets for the ambassadors.
- Collegiate interviewing is taking place for next school year’s entry into NDHS’ Collegiate Academy. The interview team confirmed nineteen more students for the 2018-2019 school year.
- On Feb. 1, the UIL announced that the Bulldogs will drop to Class 4A, based on its enrollment. In football, the Bulldogs will be in a new District 8-4A Division I and compete against Carrollton Ranchview, Alvarado, along with Hillcrest, Carter, Wilmer-Hutchins and Pinkston.
- March 24 – March for Respect 1 mile walk/5K run

How many women in Dallas ISD can list assistant football coach on their resume? Desiree Allen can! You see, Allen just finished her third season as a North Dallas assistant football coach. She coaches the varsity defensive backs and kickers and was the co-special teams’ coordinator.

Allen is being recognized for her accomplishments at the 55th Annual V. Alyce Foster Trailblazer Awards Luncheon at noon on Saturday, April 28, at the Hilton Anatole Hotel.

“It’s pretty cool because they told me I was unanimously voted,” said Allen, who has been with the Bulldogs’ coaching staff for last three years.
